CUBA IS CULTURE, NATURE, HISTORY, MAGIC AND TRADITIONS. RESULT OF THE MIXTURE OF MULTIPLE CULTURES, FUSIONS OF RACES AND CUSTOMS THAT GAVE RISE TO A UNIQUE AND FASCINATING CARIBBEAN DESTINATION.

Your trip to Cuba will be marked by its people. The Cuban is imaginative, hospitable, cheerful and unprejudiced, shows a clear and lively intelligence and is a friend of jokes and parties. On the latter it is recommended to share and enjoy the charangas, the parrandas, the carnivals, the peasant festivals and the patron saints, in which you will undoubtedly have the opportunity to taste the typical Cuban cuisine conformed, among other options, by fritters, tamales and roast pork, almost always accompanied by a good coffee, or a refreshing drink such as Daiquirí, Mojito, a Cuba Libre or a Piña Colada.

The triumph of the Cuban Revolution marks a before and after in history and meant for Cuba the opening of new possibilities, making its culture one of the most prolific in Latin America. Cuba stands out in dance, literature and practically in any artistic manifestation, whether it is called theater, cinema or visual arts.

Located in the insular Caribbean, at the entrance to the Gulf of Mexico, the Greater Antilles is a destination that has the preference of potential visitors from different latitudes. There are two access roads to the territory: air and sea. Cuba has 10 international airports and 15 domestic airports, located in different tourist destinations throughout the archipelago, allowing connection through the different airlines, to and between the main territories.

International airports in Cuba:

- José Martí (Boyeros, La Habana)
- Vitalio Acuña (Cayo largo, Isla de la Juventud)
- Juan Gualberto Gómez (Matanzas)
- Ignacio Agramonte (Camagüey)
- Frank País (Holguín)
- Antonio Maceo (Santiago de Cuba)
- Abel Santamaria (Santa Clara, Villa Clara)
- Jaime González (Cienfuegos)
- Jardines del Rey (Cayo Coco, Ciego de Ávila)
- Sierra Maestra (Manzanillo, Granma)

Cuba also has 4 cruise terminals for access to the sea, located in Havana (Avenida del Puerto),

Cienfuegos (Calle La Mar), Isla de la Juventud (Punta Francés) and Santiago de Cuba (Avenida Jesús Menéndez); and 15 international marinas or strategic points in tourist destinations where medium and small format boats dock with views of nautical events and activities of interest to the visitor.

Tour Cuba - Transportation

Cuba is an island that invites you to discover it. It is possible to do it by air or by land in conditions of absolute safety. There are numerous points that offer bus services, taxis and car and motorcycle rentals. The main carriers are Transtur, Taxis - Cuba and Viazul. For tours of tourist destinations there are tourist bus services, as well as buses for domestic trips, and companies that make domestic charter flights and aerotaxi within the national territory.

Transtur is currently the largest transporter of tourism in Cuba and has a large fleet of vehicles for the services offered by Cubacar, Havanautos and REX, for car rental. As a complementary offer for the safety and satisfaction of the demands of the market, it facilitates technical assistance on the road 24 hours a day.

Cuba has a road infrastructure and transport system that link all parts of the country, the bus service is the most used. Cars and minibuses can be rented in most hotels and in existing agencies in all cities and tourist areas.

The traffic signs are international and you drive on the right. To rent a car you need the current driver's license and passport.

The Currency of Cuba

The national currency in Cuba is the Cuban Peso (CUP), which is equivalent to 100 cents. Banknotes of 1, 3, 5, 10, 20, 50, 100, 200, 500 and 1000 pesos circulate, as well as fractional coins of 1, 3 and 5 pesos and 1, 2, 5 and 20 cents.

There is also the network of banks and ATMs distributed in different locations in different tourist destinations.

Staying in Cuba

Cuba has an extensive hotel network of various types and categories available to visitors. Luxury resorts, five, four and three star hotels, bungalows, aparthotels, hostels, villas, campers, tourist communities, as well as private homes that can serve as accommodation for visitors who wish. All this wide network, including private accommodations, are distributed in the main tourist destinations of the country and in the most varied scenarios: beaches, cities, keys and nature.

The hotel chains operating in the country are: Meliá, Gran Caribe, Blau Hotels & Resorts, Iberostar, Barceló Hotels & Resorts, NH Hotels, Cubanacán, Gaviota, Islazul, Accor, Blue Diamond, Starwood Hotels & Resorts, ROC Hoteles, Be Live, Sercotel, BelleVue, H 10, Banyan Tree.

Restoration in Cuba

Cuban gastronomy is the result of the mixture of Spanish, African, aboriginal, Yucatecan and even Asian traditions. Among the most significant are the Ajiaco, Casabe, the Buñuelos, the Tamales, Tostones, the Roast Pig and the Congrí. As for typical Cuban drinks, these are characterized by showing common elements with respect to Creole foods; because it has the Hispanic, African, Arabic, Yucatecan, Chinese mixture, etc. Its distinctive features are associated with the conditions of the tropical climate and the production of sugar cane generally, which results in a mixture of iced and sweet drinks. Among the most representative, even that have gone on to gain international fame, are the Café, the Champola, Guarapo, the Pru oriental, Cuba Libre, Daiquirí, Mojito and the Piña Colada.

Culture

Culture is one of the main attractions of this island. Diverse, mestizo and authentic.

More than five centuries of history accumulate an unparalleled wealth of oral tradition and artistic manifestations that together with symbols, representative figures and diverse cultural spaces, make the largest of the Antilles much more than one of the sounding islands of the Caribbean.

Marked by various influences, Cuba counts of tangible and intangible heritages that attract by their essence, diversity and colors, the visitor who is discovering in his step the most authentic in each destination.

Communications and internet in Cuba

Cuba provides telephone services with which you can be connected to any country in the world. Roaming service is provided if you wish.

The internet service is offered through the Nauta access accounts in the navigation rooms and in the wireless connection spaces (WiFi), enabled in different public places throughout the country (prior contracting through prepaid cards). It also has mobile data internet service using 3G/4G technology. To purchase a data plan, go to the ETECSA offices. (Communications Company)

TOURIST POLES

Havana

Havana, capital of the Republic of Cuba, is the administrative, political, cultural and scientific center of the country. Internationally recognized, it holds the titles of Wonder City of the Modern World (2016), Ibero-American Capital of Cocktails (2018) and Unesco Creative City in the music category (2019). It is bordered by an extensive coastline of more than 14 km of beautiful beaches and it is a safe and qualified place for events. Its Historic Urban Center and its fortification system have been a World Heritage Site since 1982.

It has a high-standard hotel infrastructure, with a capacity of 13,069 rooms. Havana has all the necessary advantages for the development of events of all kinds and can host more than 31 thousand delegates.

Varadero

Located on the Hicacos Peninsula, Varadero is the main sun and sand destination in Cuba, chosen, for several years, among the best beaches in the world according to the Traveler's Choice awards from the TripAdvisor agency. Its attractive shoreline exceeds 20 km, along the isthmus. It has a nautical base and two Tourist Marinas: : Dársena de Varadero and Gaviota Varadero, which are used as free ports on the Atlantic. In its waters you can practice diving, snorkeling and bathing with dolphins. It has a wide and comfortable hotel plant, with a capacity of a 21,860 rooms.

It is an ideal destination for events and incentive tourism, which can receive more than 7 thousand delegates at the same time.

Villa Clara and its keys

This province is located in the north-central part of the island of Cuba and is the owner of beautiful landscapes that alternate between extraordinary plains and mountains.

Towards the center of the province is located the city of Santa Clara or City of Che, as it is also known, due to the actions carried out by this legendary historical figure in the territory and for the Mausoleum that honors him.

To the north of the territory, three of the most surprising keys of the Cuban archipelago stand out: Santa María, Las Brujas and Ensenachos, all belong to the Buenavista Biosphere Reserve and owners of amazing natural settings.

This tourist plaza has 13,116 rooms, distributed between the city of Villa Clara and its keys. With an optimal infrastructure for events, the destination can admit more than 5,000 participants for meetings and events of all kinds.

TOURIST POLES

Cienfuegos

The footprint of the French families that gave rise to this city, located on the southern coast of the big island of Cuba, is evidenced in the perfect layout of its streets and in the beauty of many of its buildings. Founded in 1819, on the place that the Marti Park occupies today, it shows admirable heritage sites, among which the Terry Theater stands out; the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, the San Lorenzo College and the Ferrer Palace. Known as the Pearl of the South, due to its charm and geographical location. Its Urban Historic Center has, since 2005, the category of Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

This magnificent city destination has a hotel capacity of 921 rooms and can host around 300 participants in events.

Trinidad

The Villa de la Santísima Trinidad as it was baptized in 1514, is also named as the Museum City of Cuba, due to its sumptuous palaces, colonial houses, squares and churches in perfect condition.

Its Historic Center, together with the magnificent Valle de los Ingenios, have been part of the Cultural Heritage of Humanity, since 1988. It was recognized by UNESCO as Artisan City of the World and a Creative City because of its remarkable tradition in crafts and popular arts.

Trinidad is located in the province of Sancti Spiritus. Very close to its limits, the imposing Sierra del Escambray rises, one of the most beautiful places in the central area of Cuba, a fantastic area for practicing nature tourism.

With 1,150 rooms distributed among cities, beach area and nature zone, Trinidad has a competent infrastructure for the development of events and congresses. This destination can admit up to 3,000 delegates.

JARDINES DEL REY

This amazing archipelago extends throughout the northern part of the provinces of Ciego de Ávila and Camagüey. It is composed by several islets, among which the Coco and Guillermo keys stand out.

With an area of 370 km<sup>2</sup>, Cayo Coco is connected to firm land by a highway built on the sea. Its beaches are amazing; among the most important are Flamenco and Prohibida .

Cayo Guillermo, with 13 km<sup>2</sup> of territory, exhibits 6 km of beautiful beaches, among which Playa Pilar stands out; this beach is one of the settings chosen by Ernest Hemingway, to locate some of the passages of his literary works.

This destination, with a hotel plant with more than 10,600 rooms, has an effective infrastructure for the development of events, being able to host approximately 2,000 delegates.

TOURIST POLES

CAMAGÜEY AND SANTA LUCÍA BEACH

Located in the east of the country, Camagüey is one of the most notable and elegant cities in Cuba. Its Historic Urban Center is the largest on the island and due to its well-preserved heritage values, it was proclaimed a World Heritage Site in 2008.

Santa Lucía Beach stretches along its north coast, 21 km of turquoise water and a wide strip of fine sand. Just 2 km from the coast, an extensive coral reef, considered among the largest of its kind in the Western Hemisphere.

Camagüey has an excellent hotel plant with 1,794 rooms, located between the city and the beach. Its facilities at the service of event and incentive tourism admit about 300 participants.

HOLGUÍN

"... the most beautiful land that human eyes have seen" as exclaimed Admiral Christopher Columbus when he disembarked at Bariay, in the province of Holguín.

It offers the visitor an exuberant nature, together with a rich cultural tradition of great historical interest. Its best known beaches are Guardalavaca, Esmeralda, Pesquero and Don Lino.

The small city of Gibara, in the western part of the province, is the venue of the famous Gibara International Poor Film Festival.

The territory has 6,766 rooms located among cities, beaches and nature locations; an important thing for the development of events. This destination can receive more than 3 thousand participants for meetings and congresses.

Santiago de Cuba

Second city in importance of the island, Santiago prevails for its valuable history and notorious cultural tradition, mainly in music.

It is recognized as the most Caribbean of Cuban cities and popular parties are the favorite revelries of its inhabitants. In its geography extraordinary landscapes stand out, where there is a winding coastline between high elevations, and areas of great ecological value such as the Baconao Biosphere Reserve; high mountains of excellently preserved landscapes, valleys and rivers.

Santiago de Cuba is an excellent square to enjoy it all: city, culture, history, nature and beach.

It makes 1,776 rooms available to tourism in hotels located in different spaces; it has an ideal infrastructure for the development of events, and can host more than a thousand delegates in its territory.
